A TARIFF OPINION

From Gladstone, the English Statesman.

THE SWISS AGAIN ORDERLY.

Catholic Ceremonies Attended by Many Dignitaries.

Secretary Blaine at South Bend This Morning.

A Millionaire's Opinion.

By Cable and Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 29.—Gladstone arrived at Dundee to-day and was presented with the freedom of the city. He made an address, in which he referred to the commerce of the city, which, it was said, was threatened by the adoption of the new American tariff. He would not, however, he said, bring a railing accusation against the people of the United States; that protection, although it might inflict incidental collateral blows on other countries, did far greater mischief to the people of the country which adopted such a policy.

Gladstone then proceeded to contrast the decrease in the tariff in England with the increase in the United States, and said he found comfort for England in the fact that it was not true that any tariff adopted by any government on earth could interfere seriously with the prosperity of Great Britain. The first effect of the McKinley bill will be to raise the standard of prices in the United States. This meant a diminished power of exportation, and this again meant that while we were indemnified in one of our twenty markets, we derived a benefit in the other nineteen from the diminished power of the merchants of the United States to compete with British merchants in any of them; this being due to an augmentation of prices in the United States and the increased restraints under which the merchants of the latter country have to work. He advised the manufacturers to allow America to find out for herself the evil effects that will follow the adoption of a high tariff.

Many Catholic Dignitaries.

By Cable and Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—The opening ceremonies in connection with the twenty-fifth anniversary of Archbishop Feehan's elevation to the priesthood were held this morning in the Cathedral. Four hundred priests and many church dignitaries were present, and many persons were unable to gain admittance to the edifice on account of the throng. Pontifical high mass was celebrated with the Archbishop as celebrant, and a sermon was preached by Bishop Hogan of Kansas City. At the close of the services the priests and prelates went in carriages to the auditorium of their hotel, where a banquet was served.

The Benwell Murder.

By Cable and Associated Press.
LONDON, October 29.—Inquiries made at Morley's Hotel, Tottenham Square, to-day to ascertain what truth there was in the story from Montreal concerning Birchall, under sentence of death at Woodstock, Canada, for the murder of Benwell, elicited the information that Mrs. Birchall and the "Colonel," the alleged author of the letter received by Birchall, in which the writer acknowledged that shot and killed Benwell, were at the hotel last January.

The books of the hotel show that an American, styling himself "Colonel Lewis," arrived there January 1st, and remained until the 24th. Birchall arrived January 14th and was a guest until the 18th. Stevens of Montreal, the gentleman who told of seeing Birchall, Benwell and the "Colonel" at the hotel, was registered at the hotel on January 15th, and left on the 20th.

"Colonel" Lewis was well known by the servants of the hotel, and they retain a vivid recollection of him. They describe him as a somewhat pompous looking man, five feet six inches in height, stout, wore a long moustache, complexion inclined to be fair, was a heavy drinker and was generally known as "Colonel." Birchall and "Col." Lewis seemed to be on intimate terms, they were often together and appeared to be well in each others confidence.

Since January the "Col." has often called at the hotel, but has not remained. He left directions for his letters to be forwarded to Streatham, Surrey. His exact address has not been traced. Birchall and the "Col." while at the hotel often invited gentlemen to pass the evening with them. The servants cannot identify any visitor who answered the description given of Benwell.

"Colonel" Lewis went to America in October or November, 1889. His repeated visits to the hotel render it likely that he has been out of England since January.

A number of the waiters at Morley's Hotel state that they remember that "Colonel" Lewis was there when the Benwell murder was committed. They remember distinctly that the manager of the hotel and the "Colonel" discussed the murder.

WOODSTOCK (Ont.), Oct. 29.—The Jackson, Mich., letter is regarded as the clumsiest fabrication Birchall has yet put forth. An examination of the handwriting and a comparison with samples of Birchall's show a very general resemblance between the two, and in some cases a very striking likeness.

A Georgia Hanging.

By Associated Press.
PERRY (Ga.), Oct. 29.—Tom Woolfolk was hanged at 1:30 this afternoon. The crime for which Woolfolk suffered death was most atrocious. On the night of August 6, 1887, in Bibb county, nine people were brutally murdered by him. The victims were Captain Richard E. Woolfolk, Sr., and wife and their children, Susan, Pearl, Annie, Rosebud, Charles and Mattie, and Mrs. Weit, aged 84. The scene of the crime was at the Woolfolk homestead, a country farm-house.

The first alarm of the tragedy came from Tom Woolfolk, the only survivor of the family. The news of the terrible tragedy rapidly spread, and soon a great crowd gathered around the place. Nine dead bodies were found lying in horrible confusion in the house, every one brained with an ax. Nothing in the house had been disturbed, and it was evident that the crime was not committed for robbery. Woolfolk's account of the crime was unsatisfactory, and suspicion quickly fell on him, and he was arrested. The motive for the crime was found in Tom's enmity for his stepmother, and his desire to have undisputed possession of his father's property.

Woolfolk was tried twice before being convicted and sentenced to be hanged.

To the Voters of Washoe County.

CERTAIN MEMBERS OF OUR LAST Legislature, who voted to fasten upon this State the infamous lottery scheme, which cost the honest taxpayers $2,000 to defeat, and which has done more to injure the prosperity of Nevada than all the evils which ever occurred in its history, are now before the public soliciting their suffrage, among the number being M. D. Foley, one of the nominees for State Senator for Washoe county, who was the strongest advocate of the lottery bill in the Senate. Understanding that Mr. Foley denies siding it, we hereby submit a copy of the Senate Journal of January 16, 1889.

Senate Bill, No. 12.—An Act to provide for holding a special election, to submit to the people of the State proposed amendments to the constitution thereof, and other matters pertaining thereto. Bill read and passed by following vote: Yeas—Messrs. Boyle, Comins, Dunlop, M. D. Foley, Forbes, Gallagher, Harris, Kaiser, Millett, Nicholas, Osburn, Sawyer, Sharrow, Sprinkle, Torre, Williams, 16. Nays—Messrs. Emmitt, Hardy and La Grave.

Fellow citizens, can such men be trusted to legislate in the interests of the people. Elect them, and may not another lottery scheme, or some other robbery that will line their pockets at your expense be sprung any hour. It is safe only to vote for reliable men.

Bismarck on America.

The following tribute to America was pronounced by Bismarck May 12, 1882: "The success of the United States in material development is the most illustrious of modern times. The American nation has not only successfully borne and suppressed the most gigantic and expensive war of all history, but immediately afterward disbanded its army, found work for all its soldiers and marines, paid off most of its debt, given labor and homes to all the unemployed of Europe as fast as they could arrive within the territory, and still by a system of taxation so indirect as not to be perceived, much less felt. Because it is my deliberate judgment that the prosperity of America is mainly due to its system of protective laws, I urge that Germany has now reached that point where it is necessary to imitate the tariff system of the United States. In no event can the growth of large fortunes be laid to the charge of the protective policy. Protection has proved a distributor of great sums of money; not an agency for amassing it in the hands of the few. The records of our savings banks and building associations can be appealed to in support of this statement. The benefit of protection goes first and last to the men who earn their bread in the sweat of their faces. The auspicious and momentous result is that never before in the history of the world has comfort been enjoyed, education acquired and independence secured by so large a proportion of the total population as in the United States of America."

Four years ago a bill was introduced in the Nevada Legislature to provide a home for disabled miners. During the pendency of the bill, Hon. Theodore Winters agreed, if the Legislature would provide for the establishment and maintenance of such an institution, that he would deed in trust, to the State, the Bowers Mansion with its adjacent grounds, including the hot springs and about forty acres of the best land in Washoe Valley for such use and purpose, to be held by the State, free of cost, for so long a time as the institution should be maintained for the uses designated in the bill.—(Silver State.)

Yes; and Mr. Winters tried several years ago to get the State to accept of it for a site for the Insane Asylum. If the State owned and would make of it a public institution it would enhance the value of Mr. Winters' other property fifty per cent. There are no flies on Theodore.

THE report of the first gun practice of the cruiser Philadelphia shows remarkably good shooting. That was always a notable feature of United States naval warfare. In 1812 we whipped the British ships chiefly because we were the first to put sights on our big guns and shoot for keeps. The British fired faster, but did less execution. The same was true of the fight between the Kearsarge and Alabama, the latter being manned by British artillerymen. We are now making some of the best modern guns in the world, and evidently we can handle them for all they are worth.

It is understood that ex-Secretary of the Navy Whitney is making a fight for the United States Senatorship from New York to succeed Evaris. He is a very rich man. It is not likely that the Democrats will carry the Legislature. Should such a thing happen, Whitney would stand a good chance of being the winning man. He was a good Secretary of the Navy, except his leaning toward buying or copying English designs for ships, which have since been bettered by American ingenuity and skill.

BARTINE, in his Winnemucca speech Monday night, raked Mr. Kelly of the Silver State over the coals in a manner that didn't suit the old man. He squirms a good deal, but has to take his medicine.

DAN O'CONNOR, the Republican nominee for Long-term Commissioner, is entitled to the support of every Republican in the county, which would give him at least 200 majority.

FRESHNESS REWARDED.

How the Captain of a Pacific Steamer Protected a Lady.

On a through Eastern train of the Pennsylvania road, one day last week, all the seats in the car were taken except two. A lady sat in one and a man from the West with a big sombrero occupied the other. He was a fine-looking, manly fellow, and was taken by those around him for a lawyer. At the next station, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch, an unattractive drummer got on the car. He sized up the situation at a glance. The lady was pretty and that settled it. Without even asking her he sat down by her and at once commenced to make himself agreeable. She tried to avoid him and looked out of the window, but the fellow's gall was immaculate, and he maintained the one-sided conversation. The Western man was calmly watching the proceeding and stood it as long as he could. Going up to the lady he said: "Madam, I see you are annoyed. Wouldn't you prefer to have my seat?" "O, thank you," she replied, "certainly," and the big man helped her to transfer her valise, while the other passengers tittered at the drummer's discomfiture.

The latter was boiling over, but kept down his wrath until he got to Altoona, and then he demanded satisfaction for the insult.

The words were scarcely out of his mouth before the Western man banged him on the jaw, and then with his boot kicked him around as a football. "Stand back," yelled some of the tickled passengers. "Kick him harder," they shouted together, and that drummer finally crawled under a car to escape further punishment, a wiser and sadder man. Everybody wanted to know who the Western man was. He turned out to be the captain of a Pacific mail steamer out on a vacation.

AN AMUSING WEDDING.

A St. Louis Man Who Was Married Under Adverse Circumstances.

About the funniest wedding on record was that of a friend of mine, a well-known St. Louis gentleman, writes a Globe-Democrat correspondent. He married a girl who was visiting a town less than one hundred miles from here. His fiancée visited St. Louis about a week before the wedding was to take place. My friend learned that her sister was preparing to make the wedding a grand affair, and this he was opposed to. A license was obtained, and that night he left the city with his girl bound for the town she had been visiting. After the train started he asked her if she was willing to get married that night. She consented, and a telegram was sent from the next station notifying her brother-in-law to have things ready. The telegram reached there at ten o'clock and the couple at eleven o'clock. Every one was excited but the groom. The minister was present and ready for the ceremony. The ladies were upstairs, and no one seemed to think of my friend. He had left the city hurriedly, had traveled on a hot night, his shirt and collar were soiled, he had no cuffs, his shoes were unshined and he was badly in need of a shave. He at last found a tin basin on a bench in the back yard. He washed and wet his hair, but finding no brush or glass, went to the parlor and forgot all about himself. After the ceremony was over his wife turned to him and said: "Why, Charlie! You didn't comb your hair!" What makes it more funny, is the fact that usually the gentleman is very particular about his appearance.

A Gallant Frenchman.

The mayor of a French town had, in accordance with the recent regulations, to make out a passport for a rich and highly respectable lady of his acquaintance, who, in spite of a slight disfigurement, was quite vain of her personal appearance. His native politeness prompted him to gloss over the defect, and, after a moment's reflection, he wrote among the items of personal description: "Eyes dark, beautiful, tender, expressive, but one of them missing."

In Its Worst Form—"White Swelling" Cured.

The remarkable effect of Hood's Sarsaparilla in the following case illustrates the power of this medicine over all blood diseases: "My son, 7 years old, had a white swelling come on his right leg below the knee, which contracted the muscles so that his leg was drawn up at right angles. Physicians lanced the swelling, which discharged freely, but did not help him materially. I considered him."

A Confirmed Cripple.

I was about to take him to Cincinnati for an operation, expecting his leg would have to be taken off, and began giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla in order to get up his strength. The medicine woke up his appetite, and soon pieces of bones were discharged from the sore. We continued with Hood's Sarsaparilla, and in a few months he had perfect use of his leg. He is now apparently as well as ever." JOHN L. McNEELY, Notary Public, Ravenswood, W. Va.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

Recognizing the true worth and straightforward manner in which the Democratic State Convention, held in Reno, September 12, 1890, presented to the people its platform, and the completeness of its scope, we reassert the principles therein contained, and endorse it as a part of the platform of this Convention.

We lay special stress upon the doctrine of the election of honest and capable citizens of the State and country to office; of securing a free and intelligent exercise of the ballot; of restraining corporate abuses and usurpations; of adjusting and equalizing taxation; and of perpetuating the fair and honorable name of Washoe county.

We utterly repudiate the idea that to be successful in sustaining our principles we should bow down and worship the golden calf.

In particular we endorse the Democratic State platform in denouncing the present ill-advised and impracticable law passed by a Republican Legislature, requesting the use of waste water for irrigation, and for setting the priority of right thereto; and demand the repeal thereof.

We pledge the nominees of this Convention to the economical and honest administration of the offices of both State and county.

"Is this the best?" Is the question often asked, when medicine is wanted. The following are a few of the medicines of known reliability, sold by Shoemaker & Co., druggist of this place. They have many other excellent medicines, but these are worthy of special mention:

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of severe colds, and as a preventative for croup. Price 50 cents per bottle.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm, a general family liniment and especially valuable for rheumatism. Price 50 cents per bottle.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, the most reliable known medicine for bowel complaints. It is especially prized by persons subject to colic. It has cured many cases of chronic diarrhoea. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle.

St. Patrick's Pills, or disorders of the liver and bowels, a vigorous but gentle physic that cleanses and renovates the whole system. Price 25 cents per box.

Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment. For teeter, salt rheum, scald-head, eczema and chronic sore eyes. Price 25 cents.

A Safe Investment. Is one which is guaranteed to bring you satisfactory results, or in case of failure a return of purchase price. On this safe plan you can buy from our advertised drugstore a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It is guaranteed to bring relief in every case, when used as such an affection of Throat, Lungs or Chest, such as Consumption, Inflammation of Lungs, Bronchitis, Asthma, Whooping cough, croup, and etc. It is pleasant and agreeable to taste, perfectly safe, and can always be depended upon.

Try bottles free at Wm. Fininger's Drug Store.

The Best External Remedy. S. J. Tidwell, Haley's, Marion county, Alabama, writes:

"Allcock's Porous Plaster is a most invaluable household remedy. They do all that is claimed for them. I sell many hundreds every year, and every day I hear of them curing coughs and colds, diseases of the spine, liver and acute cases; in fact, there is no disease that can be cured by an external application that they do not cure."

Be ware of imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for Allcock's, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

Allcock's Corn and Bunions Shields effect quick and certain relief.

Merit Wins. We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklin's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merit. Wm. Fininger Drug Store.

The question has been asked. "In what respect are St. Patrick's Pills better than any other?" Try them. You will find that they produce a pleasant cathartic effect, are most certain in their action, and that they not only physic but cleanse the whole system and regulate the liver and bowels. For sale at 25 cents per box by Shoemaker & Co.

JAMES G. BLAINE

Too Great a Man to Ever Be President.

James G. Blaine has a great many friends and a few enemies in the United States. But there is one thing about him that friends and enemies both agree upon, and that is that he has no equal as a speaker before the American people. He is the most typical American alive, the most perfectly equipped American alive in the field of politics. He can out-talk any ten other Americans, and he has a way of convincing people when he talks. The Salt Lake Tribune says: "If there was a prize-fighter in the world, equipped with muscle and science as James G. Blaine is with intellect and with power of expression, he would knock out the earth. Then there is a charm about him which draws men's hearts to him, and, while walking and looking and talking like a king, there is something in the soul of the man that draws to him the hearts of all who are brought in close contact with him. He is to the American people what Henry Clay was fifty years ago, and it takes about fifty years to produce one such man. He will probably never be President of the United States, but he never will be passed into history in the angust company with Webster and Clay and Calhoun and Wright and Cinton, and a whole array of other men, on the graves of each one of whom shall be written: 'A great man was he, too great to ever be President of the United States.'

THE MINNESOTA PENITENTIARY.

A Pleasant Summer Resort for Evil Doers.

The Chicago Herald contains the following: "The Minnesota penitentiary at Stillwater has many pleasing advantages over most places of its kind. It seems to be run as a summer resort rather than a penal institution. The fishing in the river that flows past the town is excellent, and fishing is one of the favorite amusements of the prisoners. If a convict wants a little sport with his reel and rod he asks his keeper to call him for an early breakfast, and, in making his hash day, he starts off for a day of it alone or perhaps with a fellow convict. One of the most ardent piscators at this favorite watering place is Cole Younger, the distinguished train and bank robber, once associated with the late Jesse James. Mr. Younger is an expert fisherman, and is not often found at his prison on a good fishing day. Probably no penitentiary in the country is better managed for the comfort and happiness of the prisoners. If a man were going to spend some time in a prison he would prefer it to any other."

School Report.

The following is the report of the Verdi school for the month ending October 24, 1890: Whole number days attendance, 838; whole number days absence, 81; number boys enrolled, 24; total, 89; percentage of attendance, 93. Scholarship—Peter Frandsen, 97; Florence Lamb, 96; Eertha Pixley, 95; Pettie Merrill, 93; Walter Lamb, 92; Scott Jameson, 92; Harry Jameson, 92; Mary Hunkler, 92; Etta Pixley, 92; Lillie Nichols, 92; Christine Frandsen, 91; Mand Gill, 91; George Lamb, 91; Harry Lamb, 91; Marie Stackpole, 91; Owinie Stackpole, 91; Willie Foulks, 90; Arthur Condon, 90; May Jackson, 90; Ollie Reveal, 90; Henry Robeson, 90; Sammy Mitchell, 90; Bertha Decarie, 90; Rena Decarie, 90; Vera Towle, 90. Deportment—Peter Frandsen, 98; Etta Pixley, 92; Rena Decarie, 92; Vera Towle, 92; May Jackson, 91; Pettie Merrill, 90; Chris Mortenson, 90; Albert Boire, 90; Curry Jameson, 90; Walter Lamb, 90; Ollie Reveal, 90; Leland Nichols, 90. ANDRE FARK, Teacher.

Attempted Suicide.

The San Francisco Bulletin of the 25th inst. contains the following: "As the 4 o'clock boat left the slip yesterday afternoon, a nicely dressed, portly lady jumped from the upper deck of the steamer into the bay when the ferry-boat was about fifty feet from the wharf. T. R. Magee, son of Thomas Magee, jumped from the steamer, swam to her and kept her above water till the boat was launched from the steamer. She was rescued and taken aboard. They were compelled to restrain her by force to prevent her repeating the jump."

Valuable Discovery.

The Galt (Cal.) Gazette states that capitalists of San Francisco and Sacramento are now engaged in establishing a patent pressed brick and sewer-pipe works at Carbondale, a small station on the Amador branch railroad between Galt and Ione. It is reported that they have discovered a large deposit of coal of excellent quality on their grounds; also a fine quality of sand suitable for glass-making, which they contemplate utilizing by the erection of glass works.

Republican Excursion.

All members of the Republican party are invited to attend a grand ratification meeting at Carson City on Thursday evening, October 30th. A free train will leave Reno at 6:30 o'clock. Each person who attends is expected to carry a flambeau, torch or transparency. Those who go will be furnished tickets, badges and torches at the train. H. B. RILEY, Chairman Executive Committee.

Reading Speeches.

Many public speakers read their speeches nowadays. This reporter remembers that J. P. Jones read his speech delivered before the Nevada Legislature when he was elected to serve this people in the United States Senate the first time.

Knight of Honor.

On the occasion of the Knights of Honor masquerade ball on Thanksgiving night the New Orleans Mardi Gras will be reproduced in miniature. Ma-kara tickets, $1 each; spectators' tickets, 50 cents each.

Great Oration.

Last great speech of the campaign. Everybody come and hear Major George A. Hilton at the Opera House next Monday evening, November 3d.

BREVITIES.

Local and General Intelligence.

Read the fifty-cent ad of a lost pen. The total assessed value of property in Montana is $116,767,234.

San Miguel and Santa Fe counties, N. M., are being terrorized by White Caps.

The Carson Democracy was addressed last evening by General R. M. Clarke.

Material for the steel bridge across the Willamette, at Springfield, Or., has reached the ground.

D. M. Drunkeller, a banker, was seriously injured last week at Spokane Falls, yesterday, by a runaway team.

William Meddower, an employe of W. S. Baily, dislocated a shoulder yesterday by a fall while delivering meat.

Two Police officers at Seattle are charged with having seized a lot of opium, selling it and pocketing the money.

S. S. Cole, freighter, has been robbed and murdered by Colville Indians. The whole Big Bend county is aroused.

George Stode, a well-known citizen of Sanger, Fresno county, Cal., was run over by a heavy wagon and killed last week.

Bets are being made that Winters and Foley will carry the county. Rather a queer combination if they both get in.

It is now thought that the recovery of Miss Ella Edwards of Carson, who was recently so near death's door with typhoid fever, is assured.

G. W. Mapes has arrived on Truckee Meadows with 800 head of cattle, the most of which were driven from his Warner Valley range.

Captain W. H. Melness of the State Prison arrived here last evening in pursuit of George W. Lewis, who was serving a life sentence for murder, and August Richards serving a five year sentence for robbery, who escaped from the prison last Monday night. Both escapes were sent from Elko county.

ELECTRICITY IN FISHING.

A Great Saving of Both Lines and Nets.

It has long been known that light has a strong influence in attracting fishes in deep water. Some very interesting experiments have recently been made in the use of the electric light, which, different from other lights, can be lowered to great depths in the sea. In the course of these experiments, it has been found that the electric light has a large future before it in the fishing business, and particularly in deep-water fishing. At present the cost of miles of line and netting required for a complete fishing plant is very considerable, cumbersome and unwieldy, the latter especially in bad weather. Instead of extensive pots each fishing boat with a small electric-light plant and a few hand-nets would be able to accomplish much more than would be possible with the present outfit.

Notice to the Public.

The following stores will close at 6 o'clock this (Wednesday) evening to give themselves and their employees time to take part in the parades and political speaking:

Hodgkinson, C. J. Dr. Jinks, S. Emrich, M. Nathan, John Sunderland, A. H. Manning, F. Levy & Bro., Palace Dry Goods, E. M. Roberts, H. L. Wright, W. T. Craig, I. N. Baleske, Tassell Bros.

A Bad Beginning.

EDITOR GAZETTE: I desire to make public through your paper that there are several young boys here who are in the habit of spending the Sabbath afternoon in the upper end of town playing a gambling game called "pigeon-hole" for drinks, etc. They are respectively from 10 to 17 years of age. This is unlawful, and should be attended to by the officers of the town. Such a thing will lead to great harm if allowed to go on. Their names are known to this writer, and if this thing occurs again their names will be made public. OBSERVER.

The Latest Shad.

The GAZETTE's Paris lady correspondent writes that the latest fad in shades is royal blue; that it is becoming to brunettes, blondes and red-headed girls and is very beautiful. She says the Paris fashions are most charming and unique this fall. Paris is very gay at this time, being enlivened by a great many Americans.

Thurman's Anniversary.

The GAZETTE is in receipt of the following invitation: "The Thurman Club requests the honor of your presence at the 'Old Roman' banquet in honor of Allen G. Thurman on his seventy-seventh birthday anniversary, at Columbus, Ohio, on Thursday, November 13, 1890, at 7 p. m."

A Disease Unaccountably Prevalent.

The prevalence of ailments attributable to miasmatic poison in the air that people breathe, and the water they drink, is well nigh unaccountable. Not alone in pestilential swamps, badly drained suburban districts, and marshes exposed to the sun's rays by the receding tide, is this scourge of humanity found. Even in great cities, healthfully located, skillfully sewered, well looked after in every respect in a sanitary way, we find malaria. Its presence is often inexplicable, but its attacks are always grievous. The protector is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The erector bears the same name—a name I own to thousands of sufferers from malaria and elsewhere as a synonym of relief, prevention and cure of the insidious disorders in its abominable phases—dyspepsia and fever, bilious remittent, dumb ague and ague cake, as well as indigestion. See the Bitters less active for indigestion, kidney complaint, biliousness and rheumatism.

Why suffer with bleeding, black, itching, and watery discharges, and sore and chapped hands, when a few applications of Fryer's Abolition Ointment is given and a cure secured. Price, 75 cents. Sold by Wm. Fininger. The original and genuine Abolition Ointment is made by the Fryer & Co. of New York.

Improved digestion and assimilation produce disorders of the system which grow and are confirmed by neglect. Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier, by its tonic properties, cures indigestion and gives tone to the stomach. $1.00 a bottle.

REAL LADIES

Are Never A-aid of Being Polite to Everybody.

A correspondent writes: A young woman who is afraid of compromising her position by recognizing men out of her set, or out of a certain line of genteel occupations, shows by how frail a tenure she holds her own respectability. I could name to you women who have not only a recognized, but a commanding position in the best society, who are as uniformly and systematically polite to the clerk who sells them silks as to the pets of their circle; who have a bow and a smile for all with whom they have ever been thrown into personal relations, and who by this very politeness, vindicate their place among those whom society calls ladies.

Another Ogenit Menon.

The Carson Tribune says: It is reported that Senator Wm. M. Stewart of Nevada is desirous of securing the appointment of Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, to succeed Justice Miller, deceased. If Stewart should secure the appointment, a vacancy would occur and a U. S. Senator would have to be appointed by the Governor. Another reason why Colcord should receive the vote of every Republican in Nevada.

"A GROWL."

MR. EDITOR: Although my taxes are small, yet they are as burdensome to me as if I paid much more. And as a taxpayer, I feel that I have a right to criticize those extravagances that are factors in the creation of high taxes. I have in my mind the county hospital. No sooner does the impetuous citizen become broken down and debilitated, than he rushes off to the hospital. Even persistent dyspepsia and constipation are getting to be excuses for admission. Hence, allow me space to enter my feeble protest against further continuance of this pernicious practice. It costs too many hard dollars for the treatment of these unfortunate, and it is high time that they should know that they can save the county that expense, by the judicious use of a few bottles of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, a remedy that within my observation is a sovereign cure for those too common disorders. If they won't take it they ought to be compelled to by some law that would meet the case. Under the circumstances a full hospital is inadvisable, hence this growl.

A CITIZEN.

A Michigan Central Railroad Run plays "Win His Case After Seven Years Contest." While employed as agent of the Michigan Central Railroad Company, at Augusta, Mich., my kidneys became diseased, and from an impoverished and impure state of the blood, my general health was entirely undermined. I consulted the leading physicians of this city and Ann Arbor, and all pronounced my case Bright's disease. In October, 1883, I began to suffer from Rheumatic Symp., and am to-day a well man. It affords me pleasure to render humanity a service by stating that I am, and I wish to say that I think it is the best blood, kidney and liver medicine in the world. E. LAZARUS, agent M. C. R. R., Albion, Mich.

LASSING AN ENGINE.
A Congressman Recalls a Thrilling
Time in His Career.

How He Prevented a Runaway Locomotive from Destroying Many Lives and Much Valuable Property
in a Texas Town.

Congressman Crain, of Texas, was in high good humor, recently, says the Pittsburgh Press, spinning yarns to a coterie of brother members.

"In my young days," said the Congressman, "I was an engineer on the Santa Fe railroad. I had only been on about three months when by some carelessness or viciousness one of the engines known as mountain-climbers got away with full steam on and started down the road on a message of death and destruction. I had just finished a long run and was preparing to go home, when the train-dispatcher rushed wildly out of the office and told me the news.

The track had been cleared, he said,
and there was nothing to stop the mad rush of the runaway locomotive until it should dash into the station at Galveston and plow its way through bricks and mortar until both the building and locomotive were ruined.

"I had plenty of nerve then, and I suppose by your laughing you think I have lost none of it, but I am free to confess that I would not now dare to undertake the task that I successfully accomplished that day. Perhaps it was the excitement and enthusiasm of the moment which led me to volunteer to stop the runaway. I always smile when I recall the look of incredulity which met my confident assertion that I could catch and arrest the mad flight of the runaway, but I was so confident that they gave me a hearing, and I finally secured the services of a sturdy Irish lad as fireman.

"In less than three minutes after the dispatch had been received I was on my engine, with steam slowly coming up again, and pulling out as rapidly as possible to meet the on-coming train. It was impossible for the train-dispatcher to give me any accurate idea as to where the runaway was. The best he could do was to say that it had passed a small station about seventy-five miles up the road some ten minutes before, moving at the rate of about ninety miles an hour. A few minutes more, and with steam up I had my engine moving at the rate of fifty miles an hour, and going straight at the runaway on the same track.

"I ran this way for about twenty-five minutes, when, as near as I could calculate, the runaway had done thirty-seven and a half miles and I had covered twenty-five. If my calculations were correct there were still some twelve and a half miles between us, but you can imagine that the last five miles I covered running direct at the oncoming monster were anything but pleasant. Well, I reversed my engine and started running away, gradually increasing my speed until we settled down to a comfortable thirty miles an hour, the Irish lad meanwhile keeping on a terrific amount of steam. We might have run into almost anything, for I did not look ahead at all. My eyes were strained until they pained me looking up the track for the runaway. It might have been ten minutes, more or less—it seemed like years to me.

"Finally we heard the rumble and roar of the monster. It didn't take her long to leave in sight, and she was coming a humming. For the first time I confess I lost my nerve. It was only momentary, however, and then I opened my throttle and away we went. There was a good mile of straight track between us when I first caught sight of her; then we turned a curve and she was out of sight, if not out of hearing.

When she did come she had gained on us pretty nearly half a mile. I shut off steam a trifle, and when we struck a level piece of track but a quarter of a mile separated us. I told Irish to keep up pressure, and the way he did it it was a wonder the boiler of seventy-six didn't burst. She kept getting nearer and nearer, and it was all I could do to keep from throwing wide the throttle and speeding away.

"Finally she closed in upon us, and I assure you that so nearly equal had I succeeded in making the speed that the shock was little if any greater than that that felt upon the coupling of two cars.

I did not hesitate an instant, but jammed down the steam valve right—such a difficult task even for an athlete, as I then was,
and from there swung myself upon the runaway. It was the work of scarcely half a minute to clamber in the cab and jab down the steam valve there. We ran possibly a mile before we came to a standstill, and by that time I was as limp as a rag and shaking like a man with the ague. A good drink of whisky fetched me around in a few minutes.

We coupled the engines, and in half an hour had them both safely housed in Galveston."

Lunacy from Tobacco.

A queer case of lunacy resulting from the tobacco habit is reported from Wa-pello, Ia. "Uncle Jimmy" Blanchard, an old and respected citizen, suddenly became deranged and developed an abnormal craving for the weed, which he devoured voraciously and with the same gusto with which most people eat fruit and other toothsome articles of consumption. He eats it constantly, and gets away with about a pound of plug every day. He is showing the effects of the poison to a marked degree, and it is thought the drug will ultimately cause his death.

Queer End of a Snake Fight.

An assistant director of the Melbourne (Australia) Zoological Gardens
thus describes the queer result of a recent difference of opinion between two tiger-snakes confined under his charge:
"One of the snakes was large, the other small. Not long ago both happened to fasten on the same mouse, one at each end. Neither would give way, and the larger snake not only swallowed the mouse, but also the smaller snake. In about ten minutes nothing was seen of the smaller snake but about two inches of its tail, and that disappeared next day."

Abner Dornett, a negro living at Hickory Mountain township, North Carolina, has the largest head of any person in the United States so far as heard from. It is thirty-two inches in diameter, and gives Abner a decided
"top heavy" appearance.

JEWELS AND LACES.

"Oh, girl with the jeweled fingers, Oh, girl with the laces rare!"

What are your jewels and what are your laces worth to you if, from undergoing the trying ordeal which fashionable society imposes on its devotees, enough to test the physical strength and endurance of the most robust, you break down, lose your health and become a physical wreck, as thousands do from such causes?

Under such circumstances you would willingly give all your jewels and all your laces for a remedy which would restore you to your former health and vigor. This you can do if you will resort to the use of that great restorative known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Thousands of grateful women bless the day it was made known to them.

For all derangements, irregularities and weakness peculiar to women, it is the only remedy, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case. It is a safe and reliable remedy, and its use will be rewarded by the bottle-wrappers, and faithfully carried out for many years.

An invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system. For feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon.

THE PLATFORM.

The Republicans of Washoe County, in convention assembled, renew their pledges of faith in, and allegiance to the doctrine and principles of the Republican party, which in the future, as in the past, will continue to vouchsafe to the people the most liberal and most enlightened freedom, consistent with safety to the State, and the perpetuity of our form of Government.

We most heartily endorse the platform adopted by the Republican State Convention at Virginia City as a basis and conservative declaration of principles suited to the necessities and demands of the people of this State, and especially in view of the fact that the platform of the Democratic party, which was presented by the Grand Jury of this county, in their recent State Convention.

We recognize in our delegation in Congress,
Hon. John P. Jones, Wm. M. Stewart and
H. F. Bartine, able and efficient public servants, who have been untiring in their efforts to promote the interests of the people of Nevada, as well as those of the whole country; and we desire to accord to them that full measure of praise which their valuable service so richly merits.

That we commend the wise and conservative administration of President Harrison, who has redeemed the pledges so solemnly made to the people in the National Republican Platform, and has fully justified the confidence reposed in him by the suffrages of the American people.

We endorse the action of the Republicans
in Congress in increasing the tariff on wool,
as a means to encourage the wool industry,
hitherto imported, which Grover Cleveland, in a special message recommended to be placed on the tariff, and in the passage and in accordance with the law and the order of Democratic votes, of a silver bill which has increased the value of the product of our mines more than ten million of dollars, and seventy-five million to the value of our wheat crop, one hundred million to the corn crop, and two hundred million to the cotton crop of the United States.

It is with profound sorrow that the Republicans of Nevada received the news of Hon.
C. C. Stevenson, late Governor of this State.
We deplore his loss in the counsels of the party, where he was ever ready by word and deed to advance her interests in every honorable way; and the whole people of the State have been deprived of the services of an honest and conscientious public servant, his family a kind, indulgent and affectionate husband and father; and to the bereaved members of his household we extend our most profound and sincere sympathy.

It is the sense of this convention that the best way to promote and foster the upbuilding of Nevada is to provide and maintain a government, with a system of low taxation, and this is the only way to secure the benefits of every department of the public service, and the enactment of such legislation as will secure to the people the most rapid and lightest possible burdens, without material injury to the administration of affairs.
